YOUR VOICE MATTERS

Women are not just participants in the legal system, we are the architects of change. Let's build a future where every woman has equal opportunities and rights. The future is female, and its loud, proud and unapologetic. Lets continue to break barriers and shatter glass ceilings.

Akhalwaya's Delights Brings Old-School Comfort and Affordability to Overport

In the heart of Overport, on Crescent Street, there's a buzz around Akhalwaya's Delights, a takeaway spot offering more than just classic fast food, it's serving up comfort and community. Since 2021, under the fresh ownership of Mr. M. Asmal. Akhalwaya's Delights has quickly regained its reputation for delicious, old-fashioned favorites at prices designed for today's times.

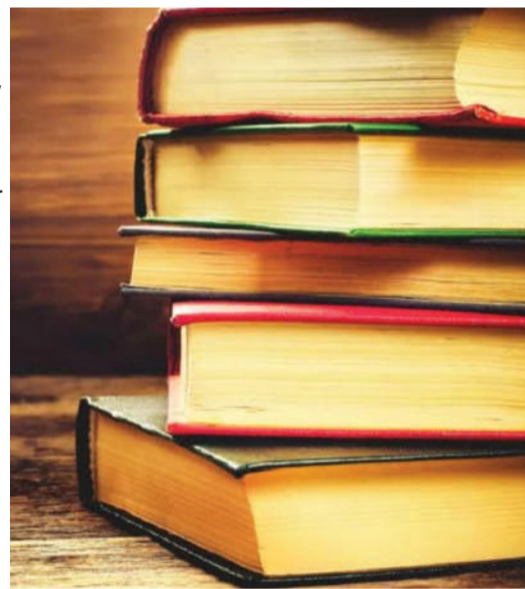

Step inside and you're greeted by the aroma of sizzling burgers, spicy chicken tikka, and cheesy pizzas, made just the way you remember from childhood. The menu remains true to the brand's roots: no-frills, hearty portions, and local flavor that hits the spot without breaking the bank. Families, students, and workers know they can depend on the shop's tradition of generous meals and friendly faces.

Mr. Asmal's vision is simple but powerful — to keep food affordable, especially when money is tight. "Everyone deserves a good meal, no matter what's happening outside," he says. This mission resonates with Overport's diverse community, who trust Akhalwaya's Delights not only for tasty food, but for its spirit of care and service.

Regulars rave about the signature burgers, legendary masala chips, and the chicken tikka that has people coming back for more. Specials and combos always offer outstanding value, making it the go-to for anyone craving honest food on a budget. For comforting classics at affordable prices, served with heart, Akhalwaya's Delights stands out as Overport's favorite food stop. Next time you're nearby, pop in and taste the difference — where every meal is a reminder that good food and community spirit belong together

Empowering Women: A Collective Responsibility

Women's empowerment is about more than just equal rights — it is about creating the conditions where women can thrive, lead, and shape the world on their own terms. It involves ensuring access to opportunities, resources, and the freedom to make decisions without fear or limitation. True empowerment spans across all dimensions — economic, social, political, and personal. It means enabling women to live with dignity, pursue their dreams, and actively participate in every aspect of society. When women are educated, families flourish. When women lead, communities move forward. Empowerment also begins with support — by uplifting one another and creating spaces where women feel heard, valued, and confident to lead. As we celebrate Women's Month, let us commit to amplifying each other's voices, inspiring belief, and building a future grounded in equality and strength. Let's be the reason she believes in herself. Because her strength is not only her own — it's the strength of our shared future.
